BACKGROUND

The City of Scottsdale continues to enhance and refine emergency-management and homeland-security capabilities through the attainment of a number of critical federal grants.

The Urban Area Security Initiative (UASI) program addresses the unique planning, organizational, equipment, training, and exercise needs of high-threat, high-density, urban areas, and assists these areas in building an enhanced and sustainable capacity to prevent, protect against, respond to, and recover from acts of terrorism. Scottsdale has been a recipient of this type of grant since Fiscal Year 2006/07 related to the City's response to chemical, biological, radiological, nuclear and explosive (CBRNE) incidents and terrorism prevention efforts.

Vulnerability to terrorism and other disasters in the urban area is concentrated in the Phoenix metropolitan area with an impact to surrounding cities. To be effective, the ability to prevent and detect, as well as manage, both crisis (threats and prevention) and consequences (event impacts) is an essential component of the Scottsdale Police Department.

CBRNE response personnel are trained in the use of specialized personal protective equipment in order to safely enter hazardous environments to both stop a threat, and remove citizens from danger.

IMPACT ANALYSIS

Grant funds will be used to replace 12 self-contained breathing apparatus's (SCBAs) and related equipment that were purchased over fifteen (15) years ago with grant funding. The current SCBAs are no longer supported by the manufacturer and are experiencing failures.

This equipment allows the Scottsdale Police Department the ability to respond to chemical, biological, radiological, nuclear and explosive (CBRNE) incidents.

Resource Impacts

The Arizona Homeland Security UASI grant is a reimbursement grant. When the equipment reaches its end of life, the department will look to secure additional grant funding to replace the aging equipment.

Staffing, Workload Impact

Approval of the grant will have no impact on current staffing or workload.
